Winter Program “Japanese Foodways-Past, Present, Future”

January 16 to February 2, 2024

Tokyo Metropolitan University's (TMU) Winter Program is a unique opportunity for students from TMU's partner institutes to experience Japanese language and culture firsthand. This 3-week intensive program offers a variety of activities to help participants learn Japanese and deepen their understanding of Japanese culture.

Venue: Tokyo Metropolitan University Minami-Osawa Campus

Duration: January 16(Tue.)-February 2 (Fri.), 2024

Eligibility: Undergraduate or graduate students from our partner universities, and those who can fully attend the program. Admission could be competitive and not all applicants are admitted due to the limited capacity of the program.

Number of class hours: Japanese (4,5 hours), Japanese studies lecture (6 hours), workshop (6 hours) & field study (7.5 hours)

◆ Learn Japanese from expert instructors: Our intensive Japanese language classes*1 are designed to help you improve your skills in all four areas: speaking, listening, reading, and writing at 2 levels: CEFR B1 and B2.

SPOT go scores and CEFR levels The learner's level is determined by "SPOT go".

- 45-60: Pre-intermediate Japanese (CEFR B1) = being able to communicate in everyday situations.
- 61-75: Intermediate Japanese (CEFR B2) = being able to communicate effectively in a wider range of situations, including more complex topics

◆ Discover Japanese culture through lectures and workshops: Leading experts and practitioners cover a variety of food-related topics, such as globalization of Japanese foods, social responses to poverty, history of Japanese foods, and foodtec.

◆ Immerse yourself in Japanese culture through field study: Site visits include a local NPO, museums and shops in Tokyo to experience Japanese culture firsthand.

All activities will be conducted in English. Students will be evaluated based on their class participation, in-class activities, and a presentation. Upon completion of the program, participants will receive a certificate.*2

Program Fee: 125,000 JPY *3 The program fee covers accommodation during the program*4, textbooks, admission fees for field trips, and workshop fees only. Tuition fee is waived according to the exchange agreement.
